

The use of low power FM is important to each community for bringing diverse programs to small towns. I hope the FCC will consider this.
Thank you.